
Public Sector Economics

CALL FOR PAPERS

We invite submissions of original theoretical, empirical, and policy-oriented papers that explore the role and functioning of the public sector at the macroeconomic, sectoral, and microeconomic levels, in both advanced and emerging market economies. In addition, we welcome contributions on a wider range of topics, including economic growth and development, institutional dynamics, and macro-financial stability policies.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Public Sector Economics (PSE) is a double-blind peer-reviewed scientific journal published since 1976 by the Institute of Public Finance in Zagreb, Croatia. Recently published papers were authored by staff of academic institutions, international organisations, central banks, finance ministries, regulatory authorities, and other public sector agencies from Europe, the Americas, Asia and the Pacific, as well as Africa and the Middle East. Our reviewers are top scholars worldwide who help significantly improve the quality of published papers.

ABSTRACTING / INDEXING

Articles published in PSE are indexed in: Web of Science Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI); SCOPUS; EconLit; ABI/INFORM Global; ProQuest Social Science Premium Collection; International Bibliography of the Social Sciences (IBSS); PAIS Index; RePEc; DOAJ and HRČAK (Portal of Scientific Journals of Croatia).
